

Emergency Procedures

All officers are trained and certified through a governmental agency on CPR, First Aid (if either need to be rendered.) Our officers work side by side with all local, county and state agencies and have good report with all. All of our officers are trained under the 3 P’s when using fire extinguisher. All officers are trained to remain calm in an emergency situation so the 911 can receive all necessary information.